Juvenile Arthritis Awareness Month

July is Juvenile Arthritis Awareness Month. Nearly 300,000 children have been diagnosed with some form of Juvenile Arthritis. Juvenile Arthritis early symptoms are often overlooked by parents and written off as swollen joints, flu bug, or rash because of an allergic reaction.

Many do not know that children can even get arthritis. Since a child's immune system is not fully formed until around 18, an "autoimmune" form of arthritis is especially aggressive in children, compromising their ability fight normal diseases and leaving them open to complications that may affect their eyes, bone growth, etc.

Common symptoms include:
- Limping in the morning due to a stiff knee
- Excessive Clumsiness
- High fever and skin rash
- Swelling lymph nodes in the neck and other parts of the body

For more information on Juvenile Arthritis, please see the Juvenile Arthritis fact sheet in this month's rounding attachments and/or visit: https://curearthritis.org/juvenile-arthritis/

Hep C Initiative

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services and Michigan Medicaid partnered with research-based global biopharmaceutical company, AbbVie, in effort to eliminate hepatitis C through the We Treat Hep C Initiative.

In Michigan it is estimated that 200,000 are living with Hepatitis C. Those living with Hep C are often unaware they have it and it can be silently spread quickly as individuals may not have symptoms for years.
